

George Steel Brown

January 27, 1941 - July 20, 2007

George Brown passed away peacefully at the Slave Lake Health Centre. He was surrounded by his loving family and friends. He had lived many years throughout the north including Yellowknife, Norman Wells and Iqaluit. During his time north he travelled to many communities and made friends everywhere he went. In 1989 he and his wife Mary settled in Slave Lake, Alberta, where he continued to travel extensively with his work and volunteer activities. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

The memorial service took place July 25th at the Slave Lake Royal Canadian Legion.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the:

George Brown Memorial Fund
c/o Ladies Auxiliary, Slave Lake Hospital.
Box 1248, Slave Lake, Alberta, T0G 2A0

George is survived by his wife Mary, daughter Katherine, son Donald and two grandsons, Peter and Robyn. His two sisters, Alice and Dorothy reside in Ontario.
