Jim Haining

1927-2005

Born in Kilmarnock, Scotland

Best friend and husband of Teri; proud father of Peggy (Sam) Ransom of Fort Smith, NWT, and Jeanie of Vancouver, BC; delighted grandfather of Quinn Ransom; and favourite brother-in-law of Jill Jeddrie of Ottawa. Jim came to Canada, after his military service, as an "Apprentice to the Fur Trade" with the Hudson Bay Company in 1949. He spent 49 years in Nunavut and the NWT with the Bay and the government. In 1998, Jim and Teri retired to Summerland, BC where he delighted in his new "southern" lifestyle. Always a genial and welcoming host, he will be missed.
