

Lorraine Marie Bowden (LeLievre)

Lorraine, 78, of Louisdale, N.S., died peacefully surrounded by her family on Sunday, October 16, 2011, at the QEII Health Sciences Centre, Halifax, following a brief illness. Born on May 13, 1933, in Louisdale, she was the daughter of the late Margaret Maud (Sampson) and William LeLievre and step-daughter of the late Harry Landry.

A graduate of the Nova Scotia Teachers College, she taught for many years in elementary schools in Louisdale and Evanston, NS, and later while living in the North took great satisfaction in teaching at the Yellowknife Correctional Centre.

Nanny Bowden will be forever in our hearts, remembered fondly for her love of visits from family and friends, her joy of baking for those she loved, and her firm belief that a good day ought to include at least one game of cards.

She is survived by her husband of 56 years, James Francis; daughters Rose-Marie (Keith) Manuel of Mount Pearl, NL; Lisa (Dan) Bedell of Dartmouth, NS; sons James (Sue), Louisdale, NS; Johnnie (Beverley), Yellowknife, NWT; and Robert (Karen and children Amy and Alan), Sydney, NS. She adored her 13 grandchildren, Napoleon, Misty, Billy, Dionne, Jeffrey, Rachel, Michael, Tanya, Alan, Vanessa, Nicholas, James and Dorion and great-grandchildren Leah, Xavier, Ashlyn, Eli, Savannah, Jackson, Owen and Charlotte, as well as many loving nieces and nephews, and Patricia Britten Bowden, Langley, BC.; sister H el ene (Arthur) Burns; brother Quentin (Viola) Landry, all of Louisdale. She was predeceased by brother William LeLievre and sister Alvina (Sampson).

A funeral mass took place on October 19 in the St. Louis Roman Catholic Church, Louisdale with Rev. Will MacPherson officiating. To send words of comfort to the family, or to light a candle in memory of Lorraine, please visit www.chboudreau.com

