

John Dillon died peacefully in his sleep in the early morning of October 1, 2007 in Inuvik, NWT.

John was the beloved husband of Annie, caring father and grandfather. He is survived by his children Clara (Derek), Barb (Gord), Shirley (Carey), Pat and Johnny, adopted children Liz (Paul) and Bernie (Craig) and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. He is predeceased by his wife Annie, sons Carter, Marshall and Michael, and daughter Georgina.

Funeral services were held at the Anglican Church in Inuvik on Friday, October 5, 2007, with interment at the Inuvik Cemetery.

The family would like to thank the doctors and nurses, especially Paula Lannon, at the Long Term Care in the Inuvik Hospital for the loving care they gave John during his years with them.

Thanks to family and friends who assisted in the planning of the funeral and cooking the food for the feast that followed the interment. Special thanks to Eddie and Lucy Dillon, Esther Price, Diane Dillon, Trevor Kaglik, Judy and Maryanne Francey, Ruby St. Amand, Herman Kaglik, Hazel Harrison, Lori Trimble, Shawna Kaglik, Brenda and Sharon Dillon, Ruby Edwards, Eileen White, Brian Turner, Clovis Savoie, the Ladies Auxiliary, the Legion, and Reverend David Parsons. Thank you for your comfort and care that you gave the family during this difficult time. Thanks to the Inuvialuit Regional Corporation and the Inuvik Community Corporation of IRC for their donations.

John will be forever loved and remembered.

John Dillon
