*Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.
And when you have reached the mountain top,
then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then shall you truly dance.*

-Kahlil Gibran

Remembered with love.
For all our days working at the theater together.
for Moondoggie days, for adventures in Piapot,
for your art and music.
For your friendly ways and open heart.

Love J.
