

Daniel Lawrence McManaman

July 25, 1943 - April 14, 2016

Daniel Lawrence McManaman, age 72, of Fort Good Hope, NT, died at Stanton Territorial Hospital on April 14, 2016. Danny was born in New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, July 25, 1943. He was the son of the late Morley and Jean (Elderkin) McManaman. He is survived by his brother Kenneth McManaman (Marie Hayes) of Lantz, NS, and sister-in-law Carol McManaman of Sackville, NS; nieces Heather and Alicia; nephews Michael and Jamie; and his Fort Good Hope family. Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his brother Morley McManaman of Sackville, NS.

Danny graduated from Halifax West in 1959 and went directly to work for the Bank of Montreal in Fairview, NS. He worked for various accounting firms before moving to the NWT. He spent the last thirty five years employed by the Fort Good Hope Band where he kept the Band in good standing with the government due to his fine management skills. Danny was an avid reader of history and politics. He enjoyed watching old movies and listening to big band music.

We would like to thank the staff of Fort Good Hope Health Centre and the Stanton Territorial Hospital for taking care of Danny during his recent illnesses. Special thanks to his friends and co-workers in Fort Good Hope for their help, support, and friendship. It was Danny's wish and the request of the community of Fort Good Hope that he be buried there. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to McKenna Funeral Homes, Yellowknife. Funeral Mass will be held in the Church of Our Lady of Good Hope, burial in Fort Good Hope Cemetery. A reception will follow in the Community Centre.

Memorial donations can be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

Send messages of sympathy to the family:
messages@mckennafuneral.com

