

David Leslie Munro (Les)

December 7, 1949, Calgary, Alberta to
September 13, 2016, Dawson City, Yukon

Dearly beloved son of Rose Munro (Joao) and Gerald Munro (deceased). Loving father to Troy (deceased), Jody (Svetlana), Justin, and Kaighen (Mike). Adoring grandfather to Alyssa, Milana; Arlow; Myah, Aria and Walker. Loving big brother to Roberta (Phil), and Roxanne (Ken). Proud uncle to Alexander and Connor. Dearly missed by Cyd and fondly remembered by Sonja and many other families and friends.

Les was a simple man that yearned for adventure and in his early years there was no taming him. He believed in working hard and was no stranger to overcoming adversity in his career that brought him from the Alberta oil patch to the goldfields of Dawson City, YT, to the gas fields of Inuvik, NT, and finally to Prince George, BC, as an entrepreneur and heavy duty mechanic. In Les' early days, he enjoyed running horses, riding rodeo broncs, and getting out into the back country with wildlife. In Les' later years, he continued to enjoy the wilderness, being on the water boating, fishing, or just sitting by the fire enjoying the peacefulness. Of all the places Les travelled, a piece of his heart was always in the goldfields of Dawson City where he spent his last days.

It has been said that Les left tracks everywhere he went; good tracks, and he always made a lasting impression with the many people he met on his travels.
