

Judith (Judy) Pilgrim

Judith (Judy) Pilgrim, beloved Wife and Mother, passed away peacefully April 10, 2012 at her home in Yellowknife, the Northwest Territories. She was fifty-seven.

Judy was born July 16, 1954 in Middleton, Nova Scotia to Douglas and Betty Rawding. She graduated West Kings High School and subsequently worked as a telephone operator in Kentville. After her marriage in 1980 she moved to Europe and thereafter to several cities across Canada before settling in Yellowknife. Through all of the moves she was the constant and the calm for the family.

Her interests centered on her family and their shared activities. She loved her family pets and enjoyed gardening and craft-work.

Judy is survived by her husband, Thom, her daughter Tanya both in Yellowknife and by her mother, Betty in Greenwood, Nova Scotia.

She is predeceased in death by her father Douglas and her brother Wayne.

A memorial to commemorate her life will be scheduled at a date yet to be decided. Memorial contributions at this time can be made in Judy's name to:

Sorrentino's Compassion House
www.compassionhouse.org or the Stanton Territorial Hospital Foundation
www.stantonfoundation.ca

Amazing memories treasured forever,
Of our years spent together,
Life is eternal, love will remain,
In our own time, we will meet again.

Love is a smile, a tear and a touch,
Love says little, but means so much,
Love is forever, and we give it to you.

Thom, Tanya, Mieszko and the Pug (Willis)

