

Harry William "Bill" Zellmann

Died suddenly as the result of a tragic snowmobile accident in Baker Lake, Nunavut on Sunday, December 11, 2011, Harry William (Bill) Zellmann, age 61. Beloved husband of Andrea Murphy Zellmann. Wonderful brother to Elli Perrault (California), LaVerne White (Georgia), and Bob Zellmann (Virginia). Caring brother-in-law to Agnes (Nessie) Martin (Mt. Pearl), JoAnne Etter (Houston), Robert Murphy (St. John's), Christina Hand (St. John's), Pamela Murphy (Williamstown, ON) Derek Murphy (Montreal), Brian Murphy (St. John's) and Maureen Murphy-Rustad (St. John's) and their families.

Bill was a retired Lieutenant Commander of the US Navy. He and Andrea met, married and resided in Charleston, South Carolina before their move to Baker Lake. He will be deeply missed by his many friends in both communities. Bill was a successful entrepreneur, an enthusiastic boater, and an avid golfer. Bill loved his family and friends, traveling with Andrea, a good laugh, the wonderful people in Baker Lake, and the beautiful Canadian outdoors.

A celebration of Bill's life,
with full military honours,
will be held at a future date in Charleston, S. C.
Bill lived a life full of adventure and passion,
he was a true shipmate, a wonderful husband,
and a warm friend to us all.
