

REPORTER

Northern News Services Ltd. publishes seven community newspapers across Nunavut and the Northwest Territories, covering crime, Indigenous, territorial and municipal politics, global resource industries, small business and human interest features with an emphasis on photography. Our goal is to produce quality journalism – see eight awards at last year's CCNA. We are currently seeking a full-time reporter. Based in Yellowknife, NNSL's newsroom works with 15 reporters and editors across Canada's North. Good salary and benefits.

Qualifications: A degree or equivalent work experience. Competence with Photoshop and InDesign would be definite assets. Must be available immediately and have a smartphone and valid driver's licence.
